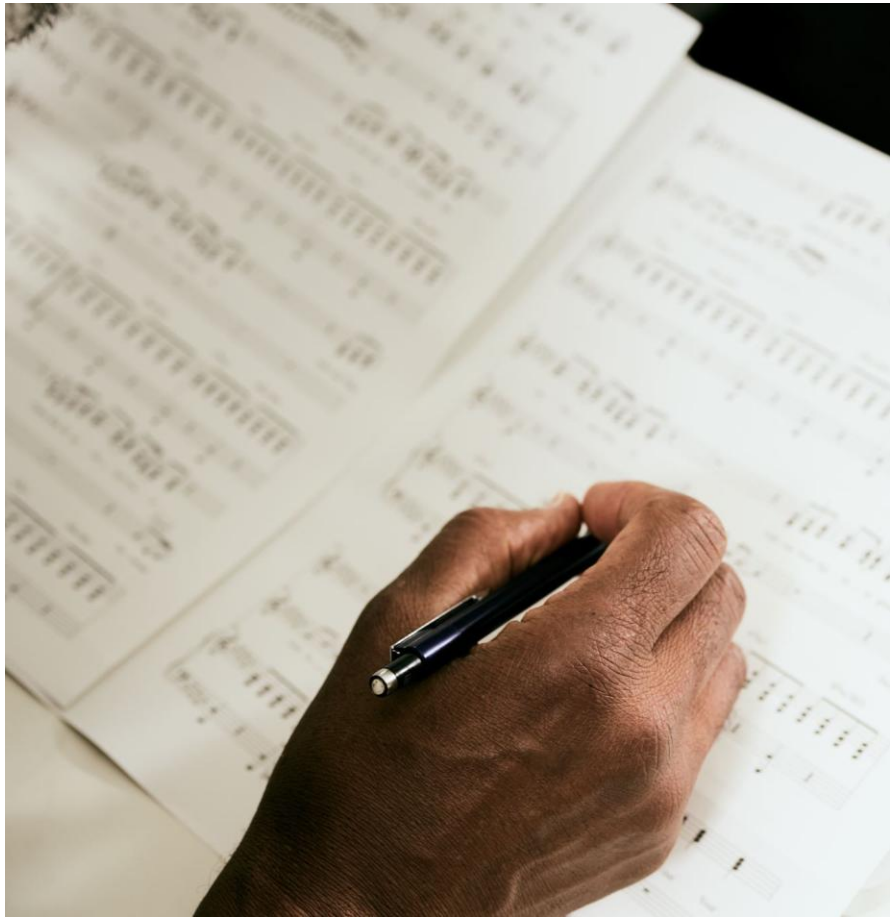
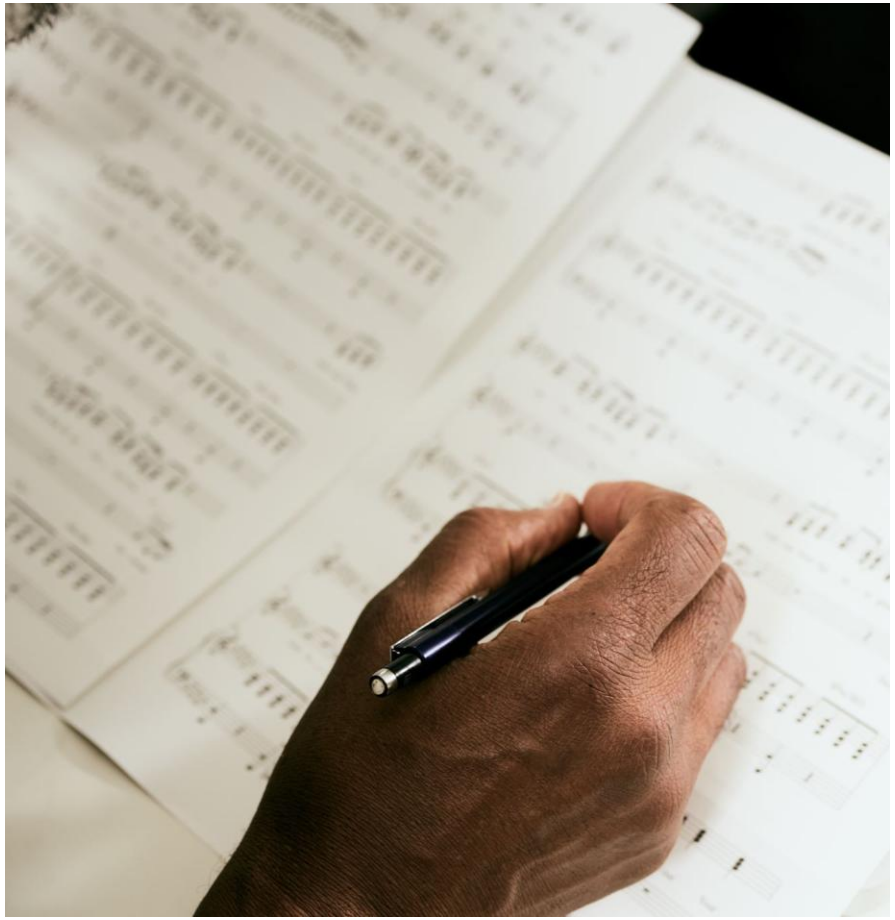
Redemptive Membership Review
Church Manual pg. 63



Jesus called His Church to fulfill the Great Commission to make disciples. With this goal in view, local churches should aim to create a warm and caring environment for spiritual growth and to encourage all ministries of the church to be united in making mature and faithful disciples.

Redemptive Membership Review Church Manual pg. 63



- A healthy church develops a nurturing plan that equips every member to be involved in disciple-making using their talents and spiritual gifts.
- In addition, it should create a strategy to retain and reclaim former and inactive members through
  - (1) a regular redemptive membership review process and
  - (2) reclaiming ministries.

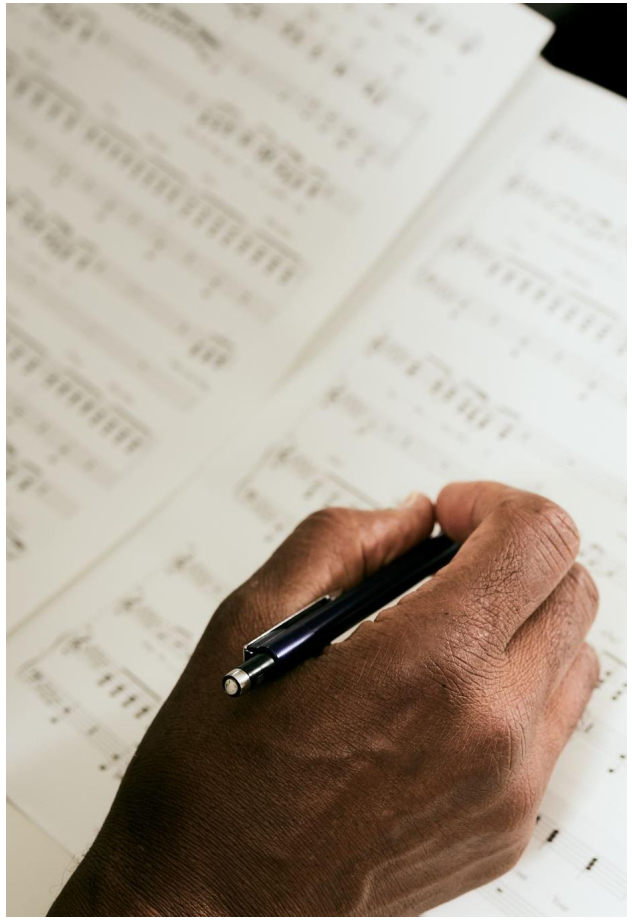
Redemptive Membership Review Church Manual pg. 63

- Redemptive membership review intends to improve pastoral care based on the foundation of accurate membership records. Nevertheless, it must have a redemptive purpose of seeing people rather than numbers.
- Updating the records should be motivated by the goal of being more effective in pastoral care and reaching the lost.

Redemptive Membership Review Church Manual pg. 63

In the Bible we find the words, “[N]ot forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching” (Heb. 10:25). There is great need to seek for those who are far away.



Redemptive Membership Review Church Manual pg. 63

Ellen G. White says, “If the lost sheep is not brought back to the fold, it wanders until it perishes. And many souls go down to ruin for want of a hand stretched out to save” (COL 191). It is a most needed ministry to review the membership records and to approach this exercise in a Christ-like redemptive way.

Jesus's prayer to "keep those whom the Father had given Him" in John 17:11-12.

As spiritual leaders in the Seventh-day Adventist Church, our mission is not only to reach people for God's kingdom but to keep them as well.

To foster a culture of nurture and retention.

To align with other church entities in the work of nurture and retention.

The work of nurture and retention is bigger than all of us. Let's continue to make Jesus's prayer a reality and fulfill our sacred trust to keep our members.

CIC Employees in Active service at the end of 2025

- Conference = 20
- Cayman Academy = 31

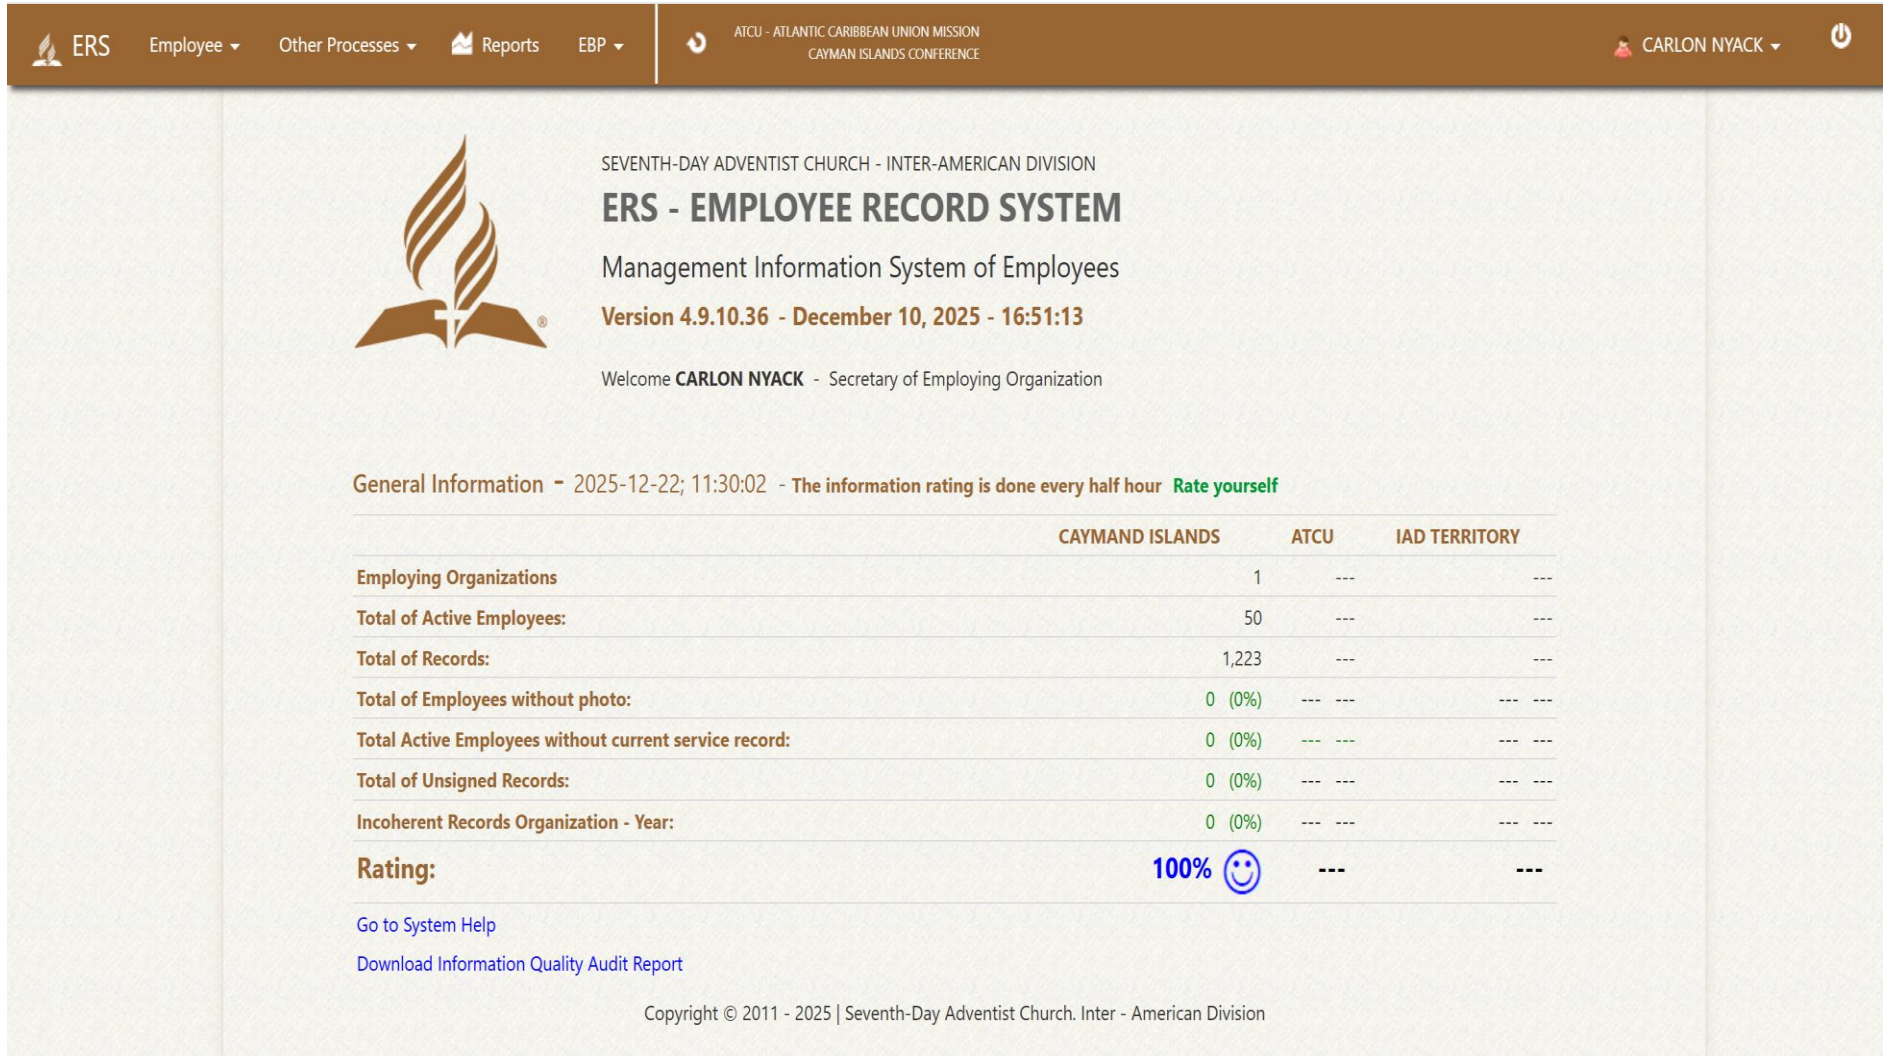
This system enables us to accurately track, record and preserve the service records of those in Active, service, those who have retired and those who once worked with us.



There is one additional employee at the school that will be added to ERS which will give the total of 51 Active employees.

Thank you

I want to thank those who support the Executive Secretary in order to accomplish the important work that God has called us to.

I want to thank and appreciate all the hard-working and committed church clerks from each congregation who submit their reports on a quarterly basis. Without this information, there would be no report.

Thank you

I want specially thank two individuals who assist me:

Sis. Cynthia Scott – Quarterly statistical reports, ERS, and other church clerk related matters.

Sis. Donnet O'Connor – HR and employee related matters at the Office.

Nurture, Retain and Reclaim

- Let us remember that each of the 7248 individuals on our records are precious in the sight of God.
- They have been purchased and redeemed by the very blood of Jesus. His eyes are upon each one of them and he cares for them (Psa. 17:8; Mat. 10:29-31; 1 Peter 5:7; Eph 1:7; Col. 1:13-14).

Let’s continue to be our brother’s and sister’s keeper and ask the Holy Spirit for a burden for souls. When they surrender to Jesus, let’s all do our part to nurture, disciple and retain them. If they go astray let’s work with all of Heaven to reclaim them with God’s help.

May God continue to bless each of you in a special way as we work faithfully until Jesus comes.
